

19th KATHMANDU INTERNATIONAL MOUNTAIN FILM FESTIVAL

9-13 DECEMBER 2021

kimff Submission Guidelines

The Kathmandu International Mountain Film Festival (kimff) will take place from 9-13 December in Kathmandu, the cultural and cosmopolitan capital of the Himalayan region. By screening some of the most recent and exciting films about mountain people, cultures, societies, environment, sports and adventure from around the world.

kimff will celebrate the complexity and diversity of mountain life with a special focus on films and narratives that reflect the realities and experiences of mountain communities in sustaining and protecting their natural environment, especially in the wake of the Covid-19 pandemic.

Following a difficult and challenging time for countries and communities across the globe, the kimff team is optimistic that the situation will improve and we can celebrate a return to normalcy during our festival in December. We hope to host a hybrid festival that allows live theatre screenings, interactions with audiences, and, opportunities to build camaraderie among the film community. Simultaneously, we will build on the success of our virtual festival in 2020 and continue our online component so global audiences can access kimff 2021 program from the comfort of their homes.

kimff will curate a diverse range of films from Nepali and international makers for kimff 2021. All films in competition will be viewed by an international jury. Filmmakers can choose whether or not to submit their films for competition. Accepted films not selected for competition will be screened and be eligible for the Audience Award. Films made by Nepalese filmmakers will participate in 'Nepal Panorama', a separate showcase of Nepali entries. The objective of 'Nepal Panorama' is to promote Nepali films and nurture the local film community in all genres.

In the presence of filmmakers, film enthusiasts, critics, scholars, authors, journalists, artists, activists and mountaineers, the festival will include discussion forums, on-demand screenings, guest lectures, and exhibitions of books and photographs, and, workshops for filmmakers.

CRITERIA

Films made after 1 January 2019 are eligible for entry. To ensure that the full range of mountain issues will be available to the participants and audience of kimff, no restrictions have been set in terms of discipline, genre, length, and format of the films. The entries can be documentaries, full-length features, shorts, animation or experimental. Films can be on any theme including ethnography, adventure, investigative reportage, abstract, or personal narratives.

ENTRY CONDITIONS

Entry is free of cost. Entries without the duly completed entry form will not be considered. All entries must be accompanied by a labeled film promo image (800px * 600px/ 72 dpi) for use in the festival catalogue and promotion. Films once entered cannot be withdrawn. The cost of mailing the films to kimff must be covered by the entrants themselves. The festival will not be responsible for any loss, damage, and/or delay of films in transit.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE FOR ENTRIES

All entries must reach the kimff Secretariat in Kathmandu by 1 September 2021.

SENDING PROCEDURES

Entries for selection will be accepted only in MP4 format either sent to us by courier, preferably in a Flash or Portable Hard drive or by a downloadable 'direct' link (Google Drive, Dropbox, We Transfer, Mega etc.). If sent by courier, in order to facilitate customs procedures, the entry package should be labeled "Only for cultural purpose, no commercial value."

FILM SELECTION

All entries will be viewed by a preview committee and the selection will be completed by 17 October 2021. The directors and /or producers of accepted entries will be immediately notified and requested to send copies in professional video formats for screening at the festival. The festival does not send out rejection letters.

The preview committee will decide whether the films selected for 'Nepal Panorama' will be screened in the international section.

SUBMISSION DEADLINE FOR FINAL PRINT OF SELECTED ENTRIES

RETURNING OF ENTRIES

Entering films to kimff 2021 indicates that the entry copies will be a part of the kimff archive maintained by the kimff Secretariat. These copies will be maintained as record and for reference. The films kept in the archive will not be distributed or screened commercially, but may be included in other screenings associated with kimff if permission is given by the filmmaker. The final prints will be returned upon request and kimff will bear the mailing cost.

The dispatching of any film to kimff implies acceptance of kimff regulations. Filmmakers are encouraged to attend the festival, and the organizers shall make every effort to help with travel advisories and will provide accommodation in Kathmandu during the festival.

Travelling kimff

A special selection of films from kimff will form a travelling package that will tour Nepal and other countries (upon request) following the main festival. Filmmakers should indicate whether they want their films to be included in the package.

In case of any controversy on a matter not mentioned in the above regulations, the Festival Director, in consultation with the Festival Organizing Committee, will decide on appropriate action. The Director's word shall be final.
